

FINE WINE & GOOD SPIRITS

Taste

A QUARTERLY PUBLICATION • HOLIDAY 2012

Prosecco

Add some sparkle
to the season

BE OUR GUEST

Host the perfect
no-fuss holiday party

PLUS:

35+ great gift ideas for
wine and spirits lovers

INSIDE!

32 PAGES OF NEW PRODUCTS IN Explore

Holiday in a Bottle

No need to whine—here's a little inspiration for wine gifts, from bottles of bubbly for a hostess to gadgets for the hard-to-please oenophile.

1 Moët & Chandon Imperial Champagne & Chill Bag What's better than a bottle of this classic Champagne? Giving it in a sophisticated iso-therm chill bag.

2 Leather Wine Tote No need for wrapping paper—offer wines in this sharp carrier instead (available for one or two bottles).

3 Veuve Clicquot Yellow Label Shopping Bag How do you impress the hostess with the mostess? With a bottle of Veuve in this stylish neoprene bag.

4 Dreaming Tree Crush Red From singer Dave Matthews, eco-friendly Dreaming Tree wines are great gifts for lovers of music and the environment. Try Crush, a jammy California blend.

5 Corkcicle Wine Chiller Skip the ice bucket. Place a frozen Corkcicle in a bottle to keep whites chilled first glass to last.

6 RabLabs Ita Wine Bottle Coaster and 7 Garra Bottle Stopper A pretty agate coaster set or bottle stopper is ideal for one-of-a-kind friends and family.

8 Subarashii Kudamono Asian Pear Dessert Wine PA-grown Asian pears give this sweet dessert wine its distinct flavor.

9 Skybar Wine Chill Drops Friends don't let friends put ice in their wine. Instead, they give them Wine Chill Drops, which chill a glass of white in minutes.

• Turn to page 84 for prices and shopping information.

